Deaths

As a result of the shelling by SAC troops, three villagers, including a 7-year-old boy, were killed. The three villagers killed by shrapnel from the SAC attack were Daw<sup>5</sup> Day Tho (aged 50) and Saw<sup>6</sup> Eh Hpoh Hser (aged 7), both from W--- village, T'Maw Daw village tract, Tha Htoo Township, and Daw Ngway Kyi (aged 54) from H--- village, Maw Lay village tract, Tha Htoo Township. One of the victims, Daw Ngway Kyi was selling balloons at the religious event during the incident. Daw Ngway Kyi regularly sold balloons at festival events in the community to provide for her family's livelihood, so it is a great loss for her family.

Injuries

Moreover, the SAC attack resulted in 11 villagers being injured, including two children living in G--- village, T'Maw Daw village tract. Two villagers were seriously injured [in critical situation], including a 12-year-old boy Saw S---

The 11 injured villagers are from G--- village, K--- village, M--- village and W--- village in T'Maw Daw village tract and L--- village in T'Ree Hkee village tract, Tha Htoo Township and also Lay Taing [Section], Thaton Town. They are: Naw<sup>7</sup> I--- (age 6), Saw S--- (age 12), Naw Z--- (age 19), Saw N--- (age 20), Saw E--- (age 26), Saw Y--- (age 27), Naw O--- (age 27), Saw A--- (age 44),

<sup>5</sup> Daw is Burmese honorific title for female adults, a married woman or a woman of a higher social position.

Naw B-- (age 28), T--- (age 27) and H--- (age 32). The villagers suffered a range of injuries to their legs, feet, back, stomach, upper chest, head, eyes (blurred vision), and face.

The injured villagers covered their medical expenses through donations that were collected in the village. No external organisations have helped cover medical expenses.

Based on an update from a KHRG researcher on March 22nd 2022, 12-year-old Saw S--- is now recovering at the local hospital in U--- village, Ta T'Reh village tract, Hpa-an Township. Two other injured villagers are now recovering at the local hospital in T'Maw Daw village tract, and the remaining eight villagers are receiving treatment at home. There were no villagers displaced by the shelling. However, villagers fear more SAC shelling and therefore sleep every night in the makeshift bunkers under their houses.

There are about 229 households and an estimated 1,473 villagers living in W--- village. On the day the religious event took place, there were about 50 to 60 villagers who had joined the event. Regarding the shelling by SAC troops into the religious event, one villager from W--- village stated, "It is not an event held by the enemy. It is not Karen Revolution Day. It is not Karen Martyrs' Day. It is not appropriate that they were firing mortars into the event."

Property Damage

In addition, as a result of the SAC shelling, three cars and two motorcycles owned by local villagers were damaged [while the villagers were attending the event in W--- village]. Specifically, one car and one motorcycle owned by Daw B--- from C--- village, one car owned by U<sup>8</sup> D--- from F--- village, one car owned by Saw Q--- from J--- village, and one motorcycle owned by Saw X--- from W--- village, were damaged.
